

SIDEREUS" moon-shaped plasterboard lamp - 300x300 mm - 8.5 W

Ref. B279-M

Our "SIDEREUS" lamp, with its exclusive moon-shaped design, is made of plaster, and is a unique decorative piece. It is an ideal product to achieve original and harmonious environments, which will not go unnoticed. It has an integrated light source, with a warm tone, which diffuses softly from its circular contour, allowing to highlight its internal textures that emulate lunar reliefs. In addition to its uniqueness as a decorative element, this lamp is designed to achieve a perfect integration to the environment, since after a simple installation, it allows to obtain a visual continuity without perceptible edges. The plaster, a material also known as plaster or plasterboard, in addition to being integrated into the plasterboard, can be painted in the desired color, thus reinforcing the concept of integration.
